To whom it may concern

My counsel has advised that if he accompanies me to the pre-arranged meeting this Thursday the 17th August at 2.00pm at D.Y. police station with Inspector Brownlow, then he may not be eligible to defend me in court as he may be called as a witness. As Ian Byrne (my counsel) is so valuable to me and my case, I can't take the risk of losing him.

My thoughts on the matter are; how can I incriminate myself when I have done nothing wrong. I will go in alone

Enclosed is the blueprint of the issues that I wish to discuss with Inspector Brownlow

My motivation is to stop this ever happening to anyone again

All it takes for evil to flourish is for good men to do nothing

Sincerely yours
