Dear Mr Nierop

I refer to your Notice of Objection to a Provisional Order for Restitution dated 18 February 2009, and various other communications regarding proceedings commenced against you in the above restitution matter.

Following investigation into the matters raised it has been ascertained that you were not convicted of an offence causing the injuries for which the victim was awarded statutory compensation.

Given the above, these proceedings have been terminated, and no further action will be taken regarding these proceedings.

I apologise for any inconvenience caused.

If you have any inquiries regarding the above, please do not hesitate to contact the Tribunal's Restitution Section on (02) 8688 5511, quoting our above reference number.

Yours faithfully

Helen Kidston
